SUPPORTING APOLLO MECHANICAL CONTRACTORS

PROJECT PARTNERS: Apollo Mechanical Contractors

LOCATION: Pacific Northwest Region

PRODUCTS USED: Five 40' portable storage containers

INDUSTRY: Data Center

Portable Storage Solutions to Keep High-Impact Projects Moving

Introduction

Apollo Mechanical Contractors supports complex builds across the Pacific Northwest, including high-demand data center work where timelines are tight and jobsite organization matters. To stay agile and keep crews productive, Apollo needed dependable on-site storage that could scale with active projects.

The Challenge

Large mechanical and data center projects generate constant material flow, specialized tools, and staging needs. Apollo required secure, convenient storage on location to keep equipment protected and accessible, reduce jobsite clutter, and maintain momentum across multiple active work areas.

The Solution

Mobile Modular Portable Storage delivered five 40' portable storage containers to Apollo Mechanical Contractors. The units were deployed quickly and positioned to match jobsite workflow, giving teams secure space right where they needed it. This flexible setup helped Apollo stay organized while projects progressed and demands shifted.

Key Benefits

- Project Support at Scale: Five containers provided immediate, on-site capacity for tools, materials, and equipment.
- Secure, Reliable Storage: Protected high-value mechanical gear from weather and jobsite risk.
- Operational Flexibility: Units could be located and used based on evolving project phases.
- Trusted Partnership: Collaboration focused on solving real-world jobsite needs fast.

Results

With additional secure storage on-site, Apollo Mechanical Contractors was able to keep projects running smoothly, stay flexible as requirements shifted, and maintain forward progress on high-impact builds throughout the region.
